

ANNOUNCING MY RETIREMENT

For more than 25+ years, my sales and business consulting career has been challenging, enriching, and exciting. I am grateful for all the opportunities bestowed upon me - both nationally & internationally. It has been an honor to help business owners and entrepreneurs advance their careers and lifetime goals.

In 2002, a Thomson Reuters sales rep introduced me to their management team (led by VP Bryon Thelen) and that was the start of my high-level corporate training programs. Soon after, I began speaking and training for the Professional Association of Small Business Accountants, through which I met John Drawdy. John's implementation of my programs led to enormous success for him and his accounting firm — and inspired many others to work with me and find their own path to prosperity. And in a beautiful kind of symmetry, my students' growth and achievements fueled my personal career success goals. I couldn't be prouder of all my students, and I couldn't be more honored to be their coach.

At this time, I'd like to announce my retirement from full-time coaching effective immediately. I am NOT taking on any clients nor engagements of any kind. VIP clients are always welcome to visit The Bauer Suite in Dallas, for a few days of entertainment or strategizing!

I'd like to thank my clients, referral partners, and staff for providing me with a fulfilling and rewarding career. So many people influenced me positively and contributed to my success along the way – to collaborate and serve with all of you has truly been an honor!

Hope to see you in my travels around the world.

Sincerely,
